Local School Wellness Committee

Evadale ISD Local School Wellness Committee is seeking new members! The School Wellness Committee (SWC) provides a forum for school district staff, community organizations, community members, parents, and youth to collaborate on efforts to keep students healthy. Utilizing the district's Wellness Policy as a guide, the committee works on sharing information and resources that bring and promote high-quality wellness education, initiatives, programs and services to the students and staff of the district, resulting in improved health of all those participating. The SWC meets at least 4 times during the school year.

If you are interested in serving on the SWC, please complete the application below and mail or fax it to:
